IN THE COURT OF ROME

Pontius Pilate,
Plaintiff,
vs.
Jesus of Nazareth
Defendant

Pontius Pilate has questioned the defendant, Jesus of Nazareth, and has ascertained he is a criminal, claims to be the Son of God, and is being called throughout the lands as King of the Jews, thus violating the law of the land in claiming to be a king in place of the reigning emperor Tiberius. The only sentence for this crime is death per order of the emperor in these cases.

NO hearing is to be held as Pontius Pilate has requested a prisoner to be freed per annual custom of Passover. Jesus Barabbas has been chosen, a convicted bandit, and Jesus of Nazareth is to be held until killed by crucifixion after a public flogging. Let the case be considered complete.

SENTENCE: Crucifixion until dead.
